Petition to save PCSO

By Karen Davis

THE RESIDENTS of St Luke's Ward, Southend, and Councillor Anna Waite handed over a petition with more than 250 signatures to save PCSO Jackie Jones, who is being transferred to the Kursaal Ward.

The petition was given to Southend Police Chief Inspector Andy Prophet last week.

Dennis Kerner, chairman of Peartree Residents Association, said: "Removing Jackie from St Luke's is a backward step. She has worked so hard and made a real difference."

Councillor Anna Waite commented: "I understand the resident's concerns. St Luke's has really improved and we don't want it to slip back."

"The youngsters have grown to respect Jackie and many residents work with her on projects in the ward."

"I am, however, pleased that we have been able to secure an undertaking that Jackie's move will be re-evaluated in three months' time and a promise that the police will be doing their best to ensure we do not see an increase in anti-social behaviour and petty crime"

About 20 local St Luke's residents came along to join in the handover of the petition, which was organised by Anna Waite and Dennis Kerner, with help from many residents.

Pub starts a collection for Help for Heroes

HELP MY HERO: Ruth Wilson, landlady of the White Horse pub in Southchurch, with her charity display.

Picture by Martin Dalton

LANDLADY Ruth Wilson will be giving this season's pub charity collection her special attention.

Ruth, of the White Horse pub, Southchurch, is raising funds for Help for Heroes - a charity founded by Bryn and Emma Parry to help wounded servicemen and women returning from Iraq and Afghanistan.

Ruth's son Sam, 21, is a serving soldier and has just started a six-month tour of Afghanistan, having already completed a tour of Iraq as a member of the Royal Regiment of Scotland.

Ruth said: "Every time my son says goodbye, the obvious thoughts cross your mind, but it is essential to keep strong and optimistic."

"I have been supporting Help for Heroes for a couple of years now and hope that my customers will dig deep to support our troops."

To raise some extra cash, the pub is holding a Psychic Night on Wednesday, October 28.

Readings will cost £15 each and all proceeds will go to the charity.

For more information about Help for Heroes, see www.helpforheroes.org.uk

The White Horse is also joining a number of other pubs in the area to help Operation Christmas Child, which distributes gifts to the poorest children in the world for Christmas.

The national appeal asks people to fill shoeboxes with gifts for kids.

The White Horse, the Parsons Barn, Shoebury, the Halfway House, Eastern Esplanade and the Spa, Hockley, are all acting as drop-off points for those wishing to give a gift before Wednesday, November 18.

Southend Hospital to slash energy use

SOUTHEND Hospital will be making a concerted effort to reduce the amount of power used.

It will hold its Big Switch Off Day on Tuesday, October 27, to stress the importance of the 'off' switch on all non-medical appliances while they are not in use or needed.

The hospital's energy manager, Manoj Chohan, hopes that will mean not just computer screens but printers, kettles, light switches and all other pieces of energy-hungry equipment.

He said: "We are a big energy user so educating staff is important - not just to save money but for our impact on the environment."

"Most staff don't like to see unnecessary waste but often think they can't do much about it at work. This is a great, practical way to help them focus their effort."

The hospital's electricity bill works out at an eye-watering £19,000 a week.

Mr Chohan added: "The amount of electricity we use causes the equivalent release of 100 tonnes of carbon dioxide each week - enough to fill 20 hot air balloons."

"I'll be interested to see how much less goes on the meter on October 27".

The Big Switch Off will come hot on the heels of an Energy Awareness Day on EFFORT: Energy manager Manoj Chohan with some of the hospital's energy champions.

Friday, when staff, patients and visitors are invited to the boardroom to glean some tips on how to live a more energy-efficient existence both at work and at home.

As well lining up some of the local energy providers, the event will bring together some of the hospital's own team of energy champions to spread the 'green' word.

There will also be lots of helpful literature - including switch off reminder stickers - to help save money and the planet.

Manoj said: "Even when appliances are not being used but are still plugged in, they are consuming valuable energy - often referred to as 'vampire' energy use."

"We want to show everyone what they can do personally to help by changing their behaviour and getting the energy-saving habit. We are sure they will be surprised what a difference they can make."

Family tree can reveal potential health risks

By Karen Davis

CLINICAL nurse Maryse Marley knows that researching your family tree could unearth more than fascinating forebears and long-lost relatives.

The fact is that learning more about your pedigree could alert you to potential health risks.

Maryse, a clinical nurse specialist at Southend University Hospital's breast unit, runs the familial breast cancer clinic.

Her job is to see patients with family members who have been diagnosed with the disease, give them advice, arrange mammograms and clinical examinations where necessary or refer them for genetic counselling if they fit the criteria.

Maryse assures that about 95 per cent of all breast cancers are 'sporadic' and just happen by chance and only five per cent are genetic.

IN YOUR GENES:
Maryse Marley from the Familial Breast Cancer Clinic at Southend Hospital.

But she said: "I advise patients on the risks and benefits of mammograms and advise them on breast self awareness by examining themselves regularly."

"I also tell them not to panic if they find a lump as this does not always mean breast cancer. But any lump or change should be checked by their GP."

Join Julie on sponsored walk

SOUTHEAST resident, Julie Chipperfield, 41, will be digging out her walking boots to lead a fundraising walk from Chalkwell Station to Ocean Beach restaurant on Southend seafront.

The walk is to raise money for a women's refuge located in Southend.

Any money raised will go towards an outdoor play area for the refuge, which provides a safe house for women and their children who have experienced domestic abuse problems.

Julie said: "This is a chance to help both women and children who are going through a very difficult time."

The six-kilometre walk will take place on Saturday, November 28.

Julie is asking for people to join her on the walk and to help raise sponsorship for the shelter.

For more information, call her on 07968 080781.

Pre-school goes back to nature

A LOCAL community pre-school is running a new programme to teach children about the natural environment.

The Eastwood Community Playschool is basing the project on outdoor play, and hopes to expose the children to natural materials and wildlife.

Chairperson of the registered charity, Warren Crane said: "This is a great project and brings parents and children in the community together."

If you would like more information about the pre-school or its new programme, contact Warren on 01702 203732.

SOUTH Essex Partnership University NHS Foundation Trust (SEPT) is celebrating being named an 'excellent' trust for the third year running, following results released by the Care Quality Commission last week.

SEPT was awarded the top score of 'excellent' in both categories: Quality of Services and Use of Resources.

They were the only mental health trust in the country to achieve this high level of quality for three years in a row.

The findings were announced in the Annual NHS Performance Ratings - a system which scores all NHS trusts in the country on aspects of their performance.

These include the quality of the services they provide to patients and the public and how well they manage their finances and other resources such as their property and staff.

This year, 12 mental health trusts across the country were awarded the 'Excellent' rating and throughout the East of England.

SEPT was one of just four mental health trusts to be awarded the top rating alongside Hertfordshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, Norfolk, Waveney Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust and North Essex Partnership NHS Foundation Trust.

SEPT chief executive, Dr Patrick Geoghegan OBE, was also sent a special letter of congratulations.

Dr Geoghegan praised staff for achieving the accolade and said: "I am absolutely delighted with our results."

SEPT is 'excellent'

It's Walk to School Month

SCHOOL children from across Southend are joining thousands around the world to celebrate the benefits of walking to school.

Southend Council's Road Safety Team has provided all primary schools with information to promote International Walk to School Month in October.

Currently, around half of school-age children don't walk to school regularly, with 41 per cent being driven to school, despite the fact the average distance to primary schools is around one mile.

Southend Council is encouraging children and parents to get involved with Walking Buses, where pupils are escorted to school along a set route, picking up more 'passengers' at bus stops along the way.

For more information about International Walk to School Month, log on to www.walktoschool.org.uk

A FAILING FLAT ROOF: THE WARNING SIGNS

Due to the slow breakdown of a felt roof leaking water can often cause structural damage before the problem can be visibly detected. Look for signs of cracking around the edges, pipes, up stands and roof lights etc. Beware of blisters on the roof surface as they will eventually become brittle and crack. Is your roof attracting moss and algae further degrading the roof surface? It is important to note insurers will not pay for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking flat roof over 10 years old leaving the home owner with the financial burden.

It was 1999 that we first introduced the highest technology in flat roofing to the domestic market. Protan, our preferred Single-Ply membrane has a worldwide reputation with millions of square metres installed in all climates. With a proven track record stretching over 4 decades making it a safe and economic choice for the home owner.

THE HIGH TECH SOLUTION & ALL THE ANSWERS

With advanced technology a High Tech roof is dimensionally stable, solar reflective & 100% resistant to moss & algae growth. It is a maintenance free vapour permeable system and will never blister or become brittle and crack plus is unaffected by climate change, all joins are permanently welded. We will create a 100% storm resistant water-tight flat roof guaranteed for life never to leak. This roof system is the No. 1 choice of leading architects, the roof has a unique anti slip finish making it safe to walk on at all times and offers real quality & value to the home owner.

Walk for hospital

By Karen Davis

A RECORD number of supporters braved the windy weather to take part in Southend Hospital's annual sponsored walk last week.

Some walkers wore fancy dress and many wore pink to show their support for the Bosom Pals Appeal.

The event was sponsored by Sea-Life Adventure, and the new route took in the entire length of Southend seafront from Uncle Tom's Cabin in Shoebury to the shelter at Chalkwell, where nearly 300 participants received their well-earned medals.

WACKY WALKERS: Mayor Brian Smith cuts the ribbon at the start of Southend Hospital's annual sponsored walk.

It is hoped that the event will raise more than £10,000 once all the sponsorship has been received.

Malachy Southend Charitable trustee and joint organiser of the event, spoke of his delight that so many people braved the elements to support the charity.

Transforming your home

LET the beauty of granite transform your home with the help of a long established Billericay company.

Essex Granite has built up an outstanding reputation over the year thanks to its superb customer service, from start to finish.

It specialises in the installation of granite, a hard wearing natural material which has taken four billion years to create.

Granite is a worthwhile investment in the home as it can transform the look of any kitchen or bathroom, thanks to a brilliance and elegance that only nature can create. It is ideal for home owners who want to create the room they have always dreamed of, as well as those who are looking to put their property on the market with a selling point like no other.

As well as enhancing the beauty and feel of any kitchen, granite also adds unbeatable functionality thanks to a durability which is second to none.

It is simple and easy to clean, extremely hard wearing and tough, resistant to scratches, acids, stains, heat and bacteria, and lasts a lifetime as it is one of the hardest materials on earth.

With so much to offer, granite is definitely worth the investment as it enhances the beauty and durability of kitchens and bathrooms for years to come.

There are a range of granite worktops for customers to choose from, which can all add their own personality to any kitchen or bathroom.

The range of colours and textures allow you to find the ideal match for your room, which will compliment any home.

Granite is composed primarily of quartz, feldspar and mica, while other materials are added to create unique colours, textures and patterns.

Dark colours include Angola Black, Cosmos and Emerald Pearl, while its range of browns include Rosso Multicolour, Baltic and Ivory. There are also a range of light colours to choose from such as Bethnal White, Blue Pearl and Cassablanca, and a selection of different colours and textures from Dakota and Kashmir Gold, to Santa Cecilia and Star Galaxy.

With so much to choose from you are sure to find something to suit at Essex Granite, so why not make an investment which will last a lifetime.

Since the merge of two local established estate agents in June this year business has gone from strength to strength. Now with over 60 years combined experience in the local housing market Diggins & Cross offer a dedicated and professional service that client's will find hard to beat. Director Darren Diggins said "In recent months the housing market has shown encouraging signs of recovery once again creating a shortage of available properties". Alongside the sales department the Lettings & Management Department has been highly successful with exceptionally high demand from Tenant's requiring all types of property in the surrounding areas. Lettings & Management director Paul Cross added "Due to the fast moving nature of the Lettings market demand is outweighing the supply of properties and therefore exceptionally good rent levels are being achieved". If you have a property that you would like to sell or let in Rayleigh, Benfleet or any of the surrounding areas then call Diggins & Cross for sound and professional advice.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

16. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. ## our verdict

Rayleigh Mount wasn't big but it had this massive hill. Josh had to push his bike to the top and when we got there, we could see for miles. There was lots of information around the site that told us about the castle that used to be there and the wildlife. We walked around the bottom of the hill and found a pond which had ducks in it. It was a peaceful place and we didn't even know it was there until we saw the entrance when we visited the windmill.

Joseph Chambers, 11

I took my bike to Rayleigh Mount but couldn't really ride it there as there was a big hill with steep slopes. The hill used to have a building on the top and there would have been a big fence around the bottom. None of that is there now but there are these information boards that tell you all about it. We found a pond and some ducks. We climbed to the top of the hill and walked around. It is a nice place to go for a picnic - you can see for miles.

Joshua Chambers, 8

Kings of the castle

LIZ WADE and her two boys discover the past on their visit to Rayleigh Mount

IF YOU think of The National Trust, you imagine big stately homes and beautiful gardens, but there is one small piece of history which is protected by the charity in Essex.

At the end of Rayleigh's busy High Street, tucked away behind Mill Hall, is Rayleigh Mount, the site of the former Norman 'motte and bailey' castle.

I had heard of Rayleigh Mount before but never really knew what it was or where it was until we visited Rayleigh Windmill during the summer and saw its entrance in Mill Hall's car park.

Although we were on another visit to the windmill, we decided to return to Rayleigh Mount later to see what was there.

Joshua decided to take his bike along on the return visit so I squeezed the kids and the mountain bike in the car.

It was a bit of a mistake because of the steep slopes and hill at Rayleigh Mount, and he spent most of his time pushing it around with him, in between giving me slight heart failure, freewheeling down a couple of the slopes.

Rayleigh Mount is the site of a Domesday castle erected by the Swayn of Essex, which is a haven for wildlife in the town and a lovely place to go for a walk or a picnic, thanks to its peaceful environment and sweeping views across the Crouch Valley.

There are display boards dotted around the site which tell you about its history and wildlife, and what the area would have been like over the years.

The masonry and timber castle was built some time between the Norman conquest of 1066 and the completion of the Domesday Book in 1086.

It is one of just a few mentioned in the book, so is considered one of the earliest Norman castles in England.

Many motte and bailey castles, which were situated on raised earthworks and surrounded by a protective fences, were built in Britain, Ireland and France during the 11th and 12th centuries, as cheap but effective defence fortifications.

The motte refers to the raised mound on top of which stood a wooden or stone structure, and the bailey was the name given to an enclosed courtyard which was typically surrounded by a wooden fence.

Rayleigh's motte and bailey castle was built by a wealthy landowner by the name of Swayn, who was the son of Robert Fitzwimarc.

It passed to Swayn's son, Robert de Essex, and then to his grandson, Henry d'Essex, who was accused of cowardice in battle in 1163. He lost a trial by combat and the ownership of the castle and its estates were transferred to King Richard I.

Alterations were made to the site in 1172 and 1183-4, and the property was given by King John to Hubert de Burgh around 1200.

It is believed that de Burgh probably used it as a source for materials for Hadleigh Castle, which he began building five kilometres away in 1230.

Its ownership returned to the monarch during the latter half of that century, and the area was used for pasture, before King Richard II gave permission for Rayleigh's inhabitants to use the foundations of the castle as a source for stone.

All that exists today are the earthwork remains of the motte and bailey, which are now protected by the National Trust for future generations to enjoy.

Although the area is quite small it does offer a pleasant place for a walk or a picnic, and can be quite educational if you stop and read the information boards around the site.

Rayleigh Mount is open throughout the year and can be combined with a visit to Rayleigh Windmill during its open season, where you can find a display on the history of the castle, as well as the windmill's sensory garden.

If you visit during the summer you can also enjoy an open-air production in July, or a guided tour during the summer months on most Saturday afternoons.

Morrissey sings

by Jenny Green

SURELY not, I hear you cry. Morrissey? Playing in Brentwood? There must be some mistake!

Well take it from me, musos - the rumours are 100 per cent true and Mr Morrissey will indeed be heading to Essex next month.

After selling out every other show on his 2009 UK tour, the Brentwood date was added as a sweetener for fans, so if you're lucky, you may still be able to get tickets for the Tour of Refusal.

Scheduled to coincide with the release of Morrissey's latest album - Years of Refusal - the tour began in February and has since seen the singer travel around the world.

Lancashire-born Morrissey, who is known affectionately to his fans as 'Moz', shot to fame in the 1980s as frontman of The Smiths.

They became well-known for their maudlin music and over the years, had hits with the likes of This Charming Man and Heaven Knows I'm Miserable Now.

After the band's break-up in 1987, Morrissey continued to perform as a solo artist and spawned several top ten tracks, including The More You Ignore Me, The Closer I Get and Irish Blood, English Heart.

Despite being hugely outspoken on everything from politics to animal rights, NME magazine has branded the singer 'one of the most influential artists ever' and in 2006, he was voted the second greatest living British icon in a poll held by the BBC's Culture Show.

Morrissey will be performing live at the Brentwood Leisure Centre on Tuesday, November 3.

Tickets cost £32.50 - to reserve your place, call the box office on 0871 224 1113.

LISTEN TO..

Overcome by Alexandra Burke
(out to buy now)

This is the debut album from last year's X-Factor winner, Alexandra Burke. Packed full of party anthems, this CD reflects the singer's personality and is sure to be a huge hit. The lady herself has even branded the album 'a beast', and that's certainly what it is - in a good way, of course!

Maharaja ranked among the top 100 in the country

THE Maharaja in London Road, Benfleet, has been chosen once again to be in the top 100 Indian restaurants at the British Curry Awards 2009, on Tuesday, November 3, at Battersea Evolution, London's most dynamic dining and events space.

Beating more than 1,200 competitors, the Maharaja has been selected as one of the top 100 restaurants in the UK to be included in the final regional heats at the 2009 British Curry Awards – the 'oscar' of the UK curry restaurant industry, which has received official recognition from Her Majesty The Queen this year.

In 2008, the Maharaja was voted as one of the top 10 Indian restaurants in the South East, selected for their cuisine, service and innovation, by the celebrity judges on the awards night, which was attended by more than 1,100 restaurateurs, MPs, diplomats and celebrity guests.

Undisputedly the most spectacular Awards Ceremony on the British restaurant calendar, the 2009 Awards, supported by the BBC, will culminate in the glittering ceremony and dinner, a major event in the spice business calendar, attended by numerous industry figures and well known celebrities.

As always, a panel of judges, hand-picked for their expertise, impartiality and respect within the industry, will deliberate all categories, paying particular attention to entries that highlight how they surpassed objectives set out in the judging brief, while also providing concise testimonials and strong supporting material.

Once again, the glitz and glamour of the awards ceremony did full justice to an industry that pours £3.2 billion a year into the UK economy.

Siraj Ali, CEO of The Maharaja, said: "This is fantastic news for the Maharaja, both myself and the team strive to keep our customers happy, in terms of the quality of cuisine and dining experience that they have.

"We are always here to ensure that our customers are given the best of everything, their loyalty and enjoyment has seen the Maharaja be awarded for its pursuit of excellence in Indian cuisine and dining. I would like to thank our customers who helped us reach the pinnacle of success in the industry."

Based on Castle Point's bustling London Road, Maharaja is an Indian restaurant full of heritage, offering unique and exotic Royal Indian cuisine in a traditional setting fit for a Maharaja.

The restaurant is the perfect setting for any occasion and is now taking bookings for Christmas for which anyone interested is urged to book early to avoid disappointment.

For more information about the Maharaja, at 358 London Road, Benfleet, log onto www.maharajagroup.co.uk or call 01268 792141.

Great food at The Cock Inn

If you are looking for great food and drink, outstanding service and a warm welcome, then why not try The Cock Inn?

The inn, situated in the friendly village of Stock, has a wealth of charm to offer visitors.

The beautiful pub is more than 300-years-old and has exposed timbers and large traditional fire-places throughout.

As well as its charm and traditional feel, visitors will find outstanding food, which is all freshly cooked to order.

Using only the finest produce - most of which is sourced locally, except meat, which is hand selected on weekly visits to Smithfields Market, in London - the inn ensures customers enjoy delicious food at the best prices.

This month, the inn has introduced exciting new menus, including a new a la carte menu.

Customers can choose to enjoy quality food either in its outstanding a la carte restaurant, or in its comfortable bar.

The restaurant's menu includes a range of starters including everything from homemade soup and black tiger prawns, to pan fried chicken livers and whole baked camembert.

Its main courses include Aberdeen Angus fillet steak, braised halibut fillet and Cajun spice Shetland salmon, while its delicious dessert menu has a range of choices from French lemon pousselet with cream, to chocolate fondant with vanilla pod ice cream and seasonal berries.

Its bar menu includes a range of sandwiches, jacket potatoes and sides, as well as a 'Lunch on the Run' menu including lots of favourites such as pie of the day, fresh cod fillet, beef burgers and whole tail scampi.

The inn prides itself on its lunchtime offers, with customers able to enjoy a freshly cooked lunch to order from as little as £5.

The family friendly establishment also has a children's menu, as well as high chairs, and has a summer promotion offering a free ice lolly to children.

Staff enjoy making visits to the Cock Inn warm and memorable for both new and regular customers.

Up-and-coming events include a murder mystery evening on Friday, October 30. The Corpse at the Cock Inn event, which includes a pre-ordered three-course meal, starts at 7pm and costs just £17.50 per person.

Anyone interested in booking a table, which requires a £5 deposit per person, is urged to book quickly as space is limited.

The Cock Inn, which has ample private parking and a large beer garden complete with an activity playground, hosts events throughout the year including live music. It is also available to hire for corporate events and weddings.

The bar and restaurant is open throughout the week and weekend. Food is served from noon to 3pm, and from 6-9pm, from Monday to Thursday; from noon to 3pm, and from 6-9.30pm on Friday and Saturday; and from 12.30pm to 7pm on Sunday.

A new dining experience at Wheelers in Benfleet

A NEW dining experience has been created in Benfleet offering diners the chance to enjoy delicious cuisine in intimate surroundings.

Wheeler's Tandoori opened its doors two weeks ago with the aim of offering customers the chance to enjoy a traditional experience.

The establishment is just how an Indian restaurant should be – serving authentic Indian cuisine, in traditional and intimate surroundings.

Its booths, complete with candlelit tables, offer diners privacy as they enjoy their meals at the own pace, while its magnificent décor, from red carpets to silk pictures on the walls, create an atmosphere like no other.

Wheeler's has previously enjoyed years of success as an Indian takeaway since 1995, and its owners, who have extensive experience in the restaurant industry, wanted to create something different in the area.

Its manager, Milad, who has more than 20 years experience in preparing and serving mouthwatering Indian cuisine, is now looking forward to welcoming diners into the newly refurbished premises.

Its quiet and relaxing atmosphere is ideal for those who want to enjoy outstanding food in comfortable surroundings.

Diners are encouraged to take their time over their meals as they enjoy a vast selection of a la carte dishes, which are all individually cooked to order by a team of expert Indian chefs.

The fully licensed restaurant also boasts a well stocked bar, full disabled facilities, and a large private car park.

It continues to offer a takeaway service, which offers free home delivery in the local area. Customers wishing to collect can benefit from its fantastic '2 for 1' offer lunchtime and evenings, from Sunday to Thursday, and up to 7.30pm on Friday and Saturday.

To see for yourself how an Indian restaurant should be, then why not book a table at Wheeler's Tandoori.

The restaurant is also now taking bookings for Christmas and anyone interested, particularly for weekends, is urged to booking early.

Wheeler's Tandoori Restaurant, at 458 London Road, on Bread and Cheese Hill, Benfleet, is open from noon to 2.30pm and from 5.30pm to midnight, seven days a week.

Enjoy a slice of Italy

YOU can find a small piece of Italy right on your doorstep thanks to the outstanding cuisine and reception at Piccolo Restaurant.

The long established restaurant, which has been popular with diners for the past 32 years, goes out of its way to make sure the service its customers receive is a little different.

Its winning formula, including its jovial, bustling atmosphere, ensures that every visit is a typical Italian one. So, whether you are there to enjoy a quickly served simple pasta dish or a leisurely social meal, an experience at Piccolo's really is a pleasure.

The family-run restaurant, at 1-4 Shorefield Road, Westcliff, is extremely child friendly with youngsters enjoying the fact that their pizzas are prepared right in front of their eyes. They may also even be able to have a go themselves!

Its staff are highly experienced in their work, with its owner, Nikki, having 45 years experience in top Italian hotels, on cruise ships and in establishments in Guernsey.

Its Italian chef has worked in Italian cuisine for more than six years and has definitely brought a small piece of Italy right to your doorstep.

Piccolo's is well known for its enthusiasm for preparing traditional Italian food, which shows in so many ways. It is famous for its fresh skate and lobster, as well as its pasta - a hot favourite with customers.

Visitors can try a range of delicious cuisine, feasting on everything from traditional pizzas, exciting and quickly served pasta dishes, to fresh fish cooked exactly to your taste.

There is also a children's menu, complete with a wide range of choices for younger diners; a Specials Board which offers a different selection of fish and home-made pasta daily; as well as a wide drinks menu including rare Italian wines.

Special offers include a Sunday Lunch Deal for just £9.95 per person, which includes a delicious two-course meal as well as a free glass of wine.

The Early Bird deal costs just £9.95 before 7pm, or £11.95 after 7pm, from Sunday to Thursday.

Family parties, office parties, anniversaries and evening parties can all be catered for at Piccolo's where staff are only too happy to arrange a meal to suit the style of your special occasion.

The restaurant has comfortable surroundings including air conditioning and a fully licensed bar area, and is conveniently located just five minutes away from a large car park.

A full menu is available for take-away customers, who can wait in its comfortable bar area with a drink of Italian roasted coffee including espresso and cappuccino while their food is freshly made.

The restaurant is open seven days a week, from 5pm till late from Monday to Saturday, and all day Sunday from 12.30pm.

For further information or to make a reservation, call Piccolo Restaurant on 01702 390370.

Fly in for a great meal

DINERS at a new restaurant and café are enjoying a unique setting with panoramic views across an airfield.

The Lancaster, situated on Southend Airport's Eastern Perimeter Road, opened its doors last month and has been delighting diners ever since.

Its vast menu and extensive opening hours mean it's the perfect place to go whether you are looking for a hearty breakfast, a healthy lunch, or a three-course evening meal.

What's more, The Lancaster also boasts a bar area where customers are welcome to enjoy a drink, without having to sit down for a meal.

The Lancaster's menu is vast and is complemented by a specials board, which changes frequently for the benefit of diners.

It serves a wide range of English and continental cuisine, and all of its dishes are freshly prepared on the premises.

It has everything from full English breakfasts in the morning, to mussels, liver and bacon, and even Sunday roasts.

Its amazing views across Southend airfield give diners the opportunity to enjoy a wonderful meal, while watching planes and helicopters take off and land.

Its food, panoramic views and friendly service are a recipe for success, which is complimented by its owner's extensive experience in the catering industry.

Add to this the restaurant's comfortable surroundings, thanks to a total refurbishment from its kitchen right through to its seating area, and you have a total dining experience like no other.

The Lancaster, which is fully licensed and has ample free parking for customers, is the ideal venue for anything from a quiet meal for two, to a special celebration including pre-

Christmas meals.

The restaurant is now taking bookings for pre-Christmas meals for which anyone interested is urged to call for further information.

The Lancaster café, bar and restaurant is open seven days a week from 8am till late.

For further information, or to make a reservation, call The Lancaster on 01702 546474.

Mazda designs the car of Tamura

by Steve Walker

THE lines that separate the winners from the losers in the medium range family car market are as slender as a stick insect's neck tie but that only makes the competition all the more fierce.

Mazda is hoping that the Tamura special edition model can do the business for its Mazda6 five-door, a car with undoubted potential that could do with raising its profile.

Mazda signalled its rebirth back in 2002 with the first Mazda6 - a sleek, stylish and highly successful car, which embodied the company's Zoom-Zoom spirit.

It was one of Mazda's best-selling cars in Europe so to maintain the same kind of momentum, the second generation model must represent as big a step forward.

This car must also out-live new generation models of rivals like Citroen's C5, Vauxhall's Insignia and Honda's Accord. In short, it needs to be very good indeed as well as very good value, which is where the Tamura comes in.

The only drawback to the Tamura is that you can't (yet) have it with diesel power. Instead, this special edition is powered by Mazda's 2.0-litre petrol engine.

It's a 145bhp, four-cylinder unit that generates peak torque of 184Nm at 4,000rpm.

It's noticeably less muscular than the diesel alternatives in the wider Mazda6 range but balances that with decent refinement and a willingness to extend itself into upper parts of the rev range where the best of its performance is.

The Mazda6 shouldn't disappoint anyone from a driving perspective.

There's a fully independent suspension system delivering impressive ride comfort and low levels of road noise.

The steering is taken care of by the Mazda RX-8 sports car's electric system in order to achieve optimal steering assistance at the widest number of speed variations. Incidentally, the adoption of electric assistance also improves fuel economy by approximately two per cent.

There's a six-speed manual transmission as standard that offers an especially precise shift operation with built-in positive stops for the extremes of the gearlever's movements.

The stylists who worked on the Mazda6 have certainly created a good looking and slippery shape with a drag coefficient of Cd 0.26 for the 4735mm long hatchback that's offered in Tamura guise.

This special edition model enhances the appearance of the car further by adding sports bumpers at the front and rear, side skirts and a rear spoiler.

Privacy glass is thrown in too as are special clear bezels for the headlights and 18" alloy wheels of a design that's exclusive to the Tamura.

Inside, customers get to enjoy a set of alloy pedals and floor mats with the Tamura logo on them.

Mindful that rivals were getting larger, Mazda's designers knew they needed a larger cabin than on the previous 6, yet the shape needed to retain the sharp sportiness of the original version.

By and large, they've managed to succeed.

The windscreen is deeper and higher, creating a feeling of spaciousness, and thanks to the longer wheelbase, knee room for the rear passengers is also increased - by 13mm.

Economy figures for the 2.0-litre petrol engine in the Tamura are really quite class-competitive, but nothing to get excited about.

It manages just under 40mpg on the combined cycle and emissions of 168g/km will keep the taxation burden manageable for the core Mazda6 customer base of company car users.

Plus, if a bundle of additional styling add-ons for a mere £300 sounds like a deal you'd be interested in, the Mazda6 Tamura could be an ideal choice.

The package builds on arguably the key strength of the '6' - the way it looks.

Preparing your car for the cold snaps

EVERYONE knows that regular dental check-ups can mean that you avoid undergoing hours of costly surgery. The same rule applies for servicing your car - and the older the vehicle, the more important it is when the winter comes around. Regular servicing will not only ensure better performance, but an efficient engine should also mean lower fuel consumption, not to mention a cleaner exhaust and greater reliability. Just a few simple checks on a regular basis can go a long way to preventing many breakdowns. Here are the basic things you should have checked on a regular basis: Tyres should always be carefully checked as worn treads are illegal as well as potentially lethal. Tyre pressure, should be regularly monitored, too. Battery failure is one of the most common causes of breakdown. Many recovery patrols now carry new batteries for sale so that they can solve the problem on the spot. Sluggish starting is a sure sign that your car battery is getting old. As soon as starting becomes slow, it's time to think about buying a new battery. It's possible that the problem might lie with the starter motor, so ask your garage to check that out, along with the fan belt. Radiators might be sporting leaks or cracks - take a look and test the strength of your anti-freeze while you're there. Wiper blades should be replaced after a year's use, so check them out as winter approaches.

STAY SAFE:
 Make sure your car is regularly maintained.

worth of wear and tear. Exhausts work hard all year, so it's worth including this important piece of equipment on your checklist, not just as winter approaches, but before a holiday. Cam-belts cause 36,000 breakdowns a year and could wreck the engine, causing thousands of damage. And one thing you almost certainly won't be able to check and rectify yourself are the shock absorbers. These are hidden beneath the car's bodywork and behind the wheels, but can easily be checked out at any garage.

Vehicle Dismantlers

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
  - Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

Find the right job for you

Electrician

Bright sparks looking for a juicy job

THE future of electricians is as bright as a 1,000-watt halogen bulb. Sparkies (as they're inevitably nicknamed) are vital in every area of life from heavy industry to domestic wiring.

There are jobs for electricians in the theatre, in TV and film production, on board ship, in aircraft maintenance and in every large-scale operation you can think of.

The areas of possible activity are very wide-ranging, from working for a small electrical contractor to major industries in the private and public sectors, service in the armed forces or self employment.

In fact, such is the scope of electrical and electronic application in modern life there are infinite opportunities for the right person to find comfortable and rewarding niches carrying out absorbing work in congenial surroundings.

There is no formal base qualification for entry into the trade, but many electricians leave school at the age of 16 with GCSEs in English, maths and physics. You can qualify through a Modern Apprenticeship, a course of part-time study at a college of further education with on-the-job experience.

Apprentice training starts at 16-17 years of age and has to be completed by the age of 25. And when you've qualified, you'll be armed with NVQ levels 2 and 3 which can be used to continue training in higher education and beyond.

You must be...

really switched on. Electricity can be lethal - not only for the electrician but for the users of the systems he or she has installed. So thoughtful, painstaking people are required.

For

Traditional trades are crying out for new recruits, so as long as you're half-way decent, you'll never be short of work.

Against

Shocking prospects. Ah, only kidding...

Money

Good. Just for a laugh, try ringing an electrician and ask them to come round this afternoon just to check your fusebox. Prepare to be impressed by the bill.

Barnard bags a brace to sink Pirates

Southend United

LEE Barnard bagged a double as Southend United got back that winning feeling after their 2-1 victory over Bristol Rovers on Saturday.

The striker brought his tally to 12 goals this season to help the Blues to their first win in three.

Boss Steve Tilson was pleased with the forward and the result.

He said: "It was a fantastic result for us and I thought we deserved the win.

"Barney has now got 12 goals for the season and that is a great return.

"With Barney, the important thing this year is staying fit and hopefully, the goals will keep coming."

Southend took the lead against their opponents, who have made an impressive start to the season, on 14 minutes when the former Spurs striker Barnard collected the ball 20 yards out and curled a delightful shot into the corner.

It got better for Southend and Barnard two minutes after the break when he turned in Alan McCormack's cross.

The Pirates did pull a goal back eight minutes later when makeshift defender Anthony Grant put through his own goal from Mark Wright's cross.

This gave the visitors a lift as they looked for the equaliser, with Blues keeper Steve Mildenhall keeping out Chris Dickson's effort and Darryl Duffy's late on after a scramble in the Blues box.

Despite the win, injuries are starting to pile up for Tilly, who saw Franck Moussa limp off and loan defender Jean-Yves M'Voto ruled out for six weeks with a hip injury, which forced him to play Grant at the back.

He added: "We were down to the bare bones and didn't have many other options, so it is all about doing a job.

"On the loan front, George Friend will be staying for another month and Roy O'Donovan will be going back to Sunderland."

■ The Blues will be making the long trip to Carlisle United on Saturday, kick-off at 3pm.

Rugby Union Barking and Southend continue good starts

BARKING's fantastic start to the season in National League 2 South continued, although they were made to work very hard for their latest victory on Saturday.

Tries from Chris Jones and James Kellard secured a 5-15 win at Henley to make seven wins out of seven, and keep their seven point cushion at the top over Ealing.

Meanwhile Southend move up to sixth place after winning 41-27 in an exciting match against Richmond. Simon Houlst, Adam Ferrier, Dan Johnson, Chris Green and Danny Cleare went over the line for the team from Warners Bridge, who had to play the last 10 minutes with 14 men.

It was top versus second in London 1 North with leaders Westcliff coming out victorious with a tight 18-17 win over Staines. Westcliff have now established a two point gap at the top.

Woodford move up to fifth after their 22-17 win over Chingford who, in turn, drop behind them into sixth. Both sides are among five teams sitting on ten points.

Brentwood recorded their second consecutive victory with a 32-34 win over Rochford Hurdred, who drop second from bottom.

This was after Eton Manor's 28-9 win over league whipping boys Welwyn which lifted them to fourth bottom.

Thurrock are the clear leaders in London 2 North East and the only team with a 100 per cent winning record. The leaders saw off bottom side Mersea Island 7-59, while second place Colchester suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of Romford & Gidea Park who won 29-24 to move up to fifth position.

Chelmsford's suffered their third straight defeat, losing 23-19 at Harlow.

Both the top two sides in London 3 North East suffered their first defeats of the season.

Leaders Beccles lost 23-15 at South Woodham Fencers, who move up to fifth, while second place Canvey Island went down 17-5 in a surprising defeat at lowly Wymondham.

Basildon jumped ahead of Wanstead in the table after beating them 43-8, while Upminster won their first game of the season in emphatic style, winning 40-3 over Billericay. Bottom club Dagenham at last had something to cheer about, winning their first match of their campaign 15-13 over West Norfolk just above them.

West Ham United

Defeat for the Hammers

WEST Ham's woes continued with a 2-1 defeat at Stoke City on Saturday. James Beattie scored twice for the Potters to leave the Irons second from bottom in the Premier League.

The game was not without controversy though, as Stoke defender Robert Huth avoided a red card after lashing out at Matthew Upson. The match officials missed the incident in a packed penalty box late on.

West Ham manager Gianfranco Zola remained positive despite the defeat. He said: "The performance was encouraging and I can only tell the players to continue as the corner is close to being turned."

Beattie opened the scoring from the penalty spot after Julien Faubert brought down ex-Hammer Matthew Etherington, who chased onto a clever Ricardo Fuller back heel into the box.

Although Stoke continued to have the upper hand, the Irons equalised before half time when Upson headed home from Mark Noble's free kick.

West Ham grew in the second half with Carlton Cole first being blocked by Thomas Sorenson's save and then an excellent tackle from Ryan Shawcross.

But Stoke soon deflated their opponents' hopes of a win when Beattie followed up after Robert Green had saved a Fuller shot to make it 2-1. Then came Huth's off-the-ball lash out, but the game was all but over.

RFJ claims title with great drive

Motorsport

A THORPE Bay kartist snatched the British Super 1 championship in a sensational showdown last Sunday.

Robert Foster-Jones went into the weekend knowing that nothing less than victory would suffice if he was to win the title.

The 19-year-old then produced a super performance to win the first final, while his closest rival Ben Cooper finished in fifth place.

Delays in the programme meant the possibility of the cancellation of the second final, which would have handed Cooper the title.

But the race went ahead and produced a thrilling climax.

Cooper seized the initiative and forced his way passed several drivers, including Foster-Jones, who was pushed off the circuit and fell to the rear of the field.

He then produced a stunning drive to climb back up to second place, but by then Cooper had pulled out a big gap.

Foster-Jones was not to be denied and managed to close and pass the championship leader.

Second place was still enough for Cooper to take the title, so in a repeat of the first race, Foster-Jones slowed the pace down to allow the chasing pack to close.

With so much at stake, something had to give and it did. Cooper went for an optimistic manoeuvre, squeezing Foster-Jones onto a high kerb. Two drivers managed to pass the pair, although RFJ recovered to third place while Cooper fell down the order. He was later excluded for contact driving, handing the title to a delighted Foster-Jones.

He said: "I've had some fantastic races and taken some illustrious victories but this was the pinnacle of my karting career. This was my last event in karts before I go into cars and I can't tell you how much I wanted to go out on top."

RFJ will make his motor racing debut at the end of the month in the opening round of the Formula Renault Winter Series with Manor Competition - the team which helped Lewis Hamilton early in his career.

The first rounds take place at Snetterton in Norfolk on Saturday, October 31 and Sunday, November 1.

Defeat to Wrexham sees Grays in drop zone

Non-League Football

GRAYS Athletic dropped back into the relegation zone in Blue Square Premier after defeat at Wrexham on Saturday.

Their 2-1 loss means its only two wins out of 16 games for the Blues who went behind after five minutes through Christian Smith.

Jamie Slabber quickly equalised for Grays but former Crystal Palace and Notts Forest striker Gareth Taylor scored seven minutes before half-time which proved to be decisive for the Welsh side.

In Blue Square South, Thurrock's great run of form continued, smashing five past Dorchester.

Despite going behind to Matt

Grove's goal on two minutes, goals from Fola Orilonishe (4), Matt Bodkin (44), Leon McKenzie (45), Leon Lalite (60) and David Bryant (73) secured Fleet the win. Phil Walsh scored a late consolation for the visitors while the result keeps Thurrock in third place.

Chelmsford City got back to winning ways in the league, winning 3-1 over Welling United.

Jack Parkinson put Welling ahead after four minutes, but Dave Rainford (pen 36), Rob Edmans (57) and Antonio Murray (90) made sure of the win for the Clarets.

There was cup action in the form of the FA Trophy First Qualifying Round, and there was disappointment for Canvey Island.

The Gulls went down 2-1 at home to Hitchin Town from the Zamaretto Southern League Division One Midlands, who avenged their FA Cup Qualifying defeat.

Aveley crashed out 5-2 at home to fellow Ryman League Premier side Carshalton Athletic, while fellow league rivals Waltham Abbey also bowed out to Boreham Wood, suffering a 2-0 home defeat.

Ryman Premier's AFC Hornchurch saw off Ryman League Division One North's Brentwood Town 2-1, while Billericay Town drew 3-3 at Zamaretto Division One Midlands side AFC Sudbury. Their replay was due to be played last night (Tuesday).

Division One North's Concord

Ranger won 1-0 at league rivals VCD Athletic, while Waltham Forest earned a replay, holding Ryman Premier's Maidstone United with a 1-1 home draw.

The lead in Ryman League Division One North has once again changed, with Great Wakering Rovers taking over, taking advantage of Concord's involvement in the FA Trophy.

They won 2-1 at Wingate & Finchley to go three points clear, although Concord in second have two games in hand, while Lowestoft Town in third have three games.

Heybridge Swifts bagged an important win over lowly Cheshunt, winning 3-1 while mid-table sides Leyton and Tilbury played out a goalless draw.
